i do not support the currently proposed settlement with microsoft. I think that microsoft has radically abused their monopoly position for far too long. I think they should be broken into 2 companies, one for software, one for operating systems. I also think they should have to pay a massive fine which would be used for supplying the nation's poorest schools with the hardware/software of the schools' choosing.

Thank you for listening. fuck microsoft. please get them where it hurts. bad microsoft, bad!
